THE QUO WARRANTO CASE. Before Mr. Associate Justice Willard

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the time appointed for hearing the return to the write of que warrante served on Aldermen Barrow, T. J. Mackey and Greene, the respondents appeared through their counsel before Mr. Asso ciate Justice Willard, sitting in Chambers, Mr. Tharin, of counsel for Aldermen Barrow and T. J. Mackey, moved that further proceedings under the write be forthwith quashed, and was proceeding to quote authorities in support of that course, when the Court interrupted him and declined to entertain the motion. Mr. Bowen, the senior coussel for the same respondents, then proceeded to read the returns to the write in their respective cases. The returns are substantially the same in purport, and recite that the said David Barrow and T. J. Mackey were duly elected Aldermen for the City of Charleston on the 10th day of November last, for a term of office which has not yet expired; that they duly qualified and entered upon their duties on the 3d day of May, inst., and that they hold and exercise their offices as Aldermen of right and by warrant of law. And in reply to the suggestion filed by the Attorney General, on behalf of the State, they make a general denial of the allegations therein contained, Alderman Barrow affirming that he was, at the time of the election, and has been ever since, and is now, a resident of Ward No. 8; and Alderman T. J. Mackey affirming that he was a resident of the State at the time of the adoption of the constitution there of and exercised his right as an elector by voting at the election for the ratification of said constitution. All of which statements are duly supported by the sworn affidavits of the respondents aforesaid. Mr. T. B. King, of counsel for Alderman Greene, read a return to the writ issued against that Alderman, which generally denies the allegations contained in the suggestion, and objects to the same on the ground that they are unsupported by affidavit, and claims that the relator was not in fact the Attornoy-General, but some private person or persons, and that the signature of the Attor ney-General was only affixed to the suggestion pro forma

Mr. King was proceeding to argue this latter point, when he was interrupted by the Court, who decided that there was no ground for going behind the signature of the Attorney-General unless counsel were prepared to show that the same was unauthorized.

Mr. King then proposed to offer affidavits in support of the allegations contained in the return of Alderman Greene. Mr. Pressley, in behalf of the relator, said that if the counsel for the respondents proposed to try the case by affidavits, the counsel for the relator would assent to that proposition. Mr. King explained that he meant only t present the affidavite as a basis for quashing proceedings under the writ. Otherwise his tient wished to put himself upon the country. Mr. Bowen said that Alderman Barrow and T. J. Mackey also desired to put themselves upon the country. He contended that an As sociate Justice, sitting in Chambers, had no right under the Constitution of the State to try and determine questions of fact. Mr. Pressley, in reply, argued at some ength to show that by manifest implication the court, in some cases, had clearly the right to try and decide questions of fact as well as of law. He urged that its powers in this respect were analogous to those of a chancellor under the old judicial sytem of the State, and cited precedents to show that in many cases such a right had been claimed and exercised by the hancery courts.

The Court said that this was a question of vital importance, and one by which many in-terests would be seriously affected. He would therefore suggest to counsel that an occasion should be fixed when the matter could be fully discussed. This could not be done now, as the session of the Supreme Court was about to open. He would frankly say to counsel, how- out: Let him go! Let him go! Mesers. Thomas Miller, Hoff, Phinney and ever, that his prepossessions were adverse to the concession that such a right belonged t

LARGE LAND SALE NEAR CHARLESTON-THE BLAKE BARONY AND OTHER VALUABLE PROPERTY Sold.-The changes which have been brought about by the revolution through which we have passed, have rendered many alterations necessary in the conduct of a large planting interest in the South, and the improvements demanded to produce a successful result, will induce many large landholders to lessen their interest in order that the remainder of their estates may be conducted with more undivided attention. A sale has just been completed of one of the most extensive and valuable planting interests on the Southern seaboard, the tract being a principality in size and composed of a splendid rice estate and an immense body of valuably upland. This princely domain has been purchased by the well known commercial house of our city, Messrs. Willis & Chisolm, who are associated with Henry Hart, Esq., of New York, and consists first of the Blake barony, late the property of Daniel Blake, Esq., situated on the Combahee River, and which has been in that family since the Colonial times. This tract, to which some additions were made from time to time, has an area of about fourteen thousand six hundred acres, of which fourteen hundred and fifty is firetclass rice land, capable of the highest production, four hundred scree of cleared upland, and much of the balance is superior woodland, with a valuable growth of timber. The Savannah Railroad passes through this land to the extent of four and a half miles. This property was sold for forty thousand dollars, part cash and the balance on time. The next purchase by the same parties was the Pleasant and Rose Hill plantations, lying immediately adjacent to the above, consisting of four hundred and seventy-six acres of first-class rice land, two hundred scree of cleared upland and seventeen hundred acres of uncleared oak and hickory land. This was lately the property of Mrs, General Trapier, and was at one time the residence of her father, Charles Heyward, Esq. It was sold for twenty-eight thousand dollars, part cash and part time. The purchasers expect soon after taking presention of this property to place it under the most shiftsi management, and the latest improvements in the cultivation of the soil, particularly in the growth of rice, will be adopted and carried on with energy. We wish these greatlemen the most decided success; for it is only by the ap-

ANOTHER MEETING OF COUNCIL. THE OPPOSITION FLANKED-NO QUORUM. A Negro Aldernan made Mayor, pro tem

The proceedings in the Council chamber

last night showed that the minority are not yet dead, and that they have still vitality enough to cause considerable damage to persevering opposition. It was plain enough that aix votes were not as good as ten on a square division, and the six determined, it seems, to try whether a flank movement would not do petter than the direct attack. The six went quietly to the City Hall and as quietly to the Mayor's room, where there was a solemn consultation, which ended in the withdrawal of the six from the building. Howard, colored, who had heretofore supported the TEN, was one of the flankers, so that when the Mayor entered the Council chamber there were only present the name of the opposition-one less than a quorum. It is hard to say whether the NINE were aware of the blow that was about to fall, but they behaved themselves particularly well under the circumstances, and proved their faith by appointing E. P. Wall, a negro Alderman, Mayor pro tem; the appointment being made by a body which, as it was without a quorum, could transact no business whatever.

At a few minutes after eight o'clock, the Mayor appeared and took his seat, when there were found to be present Aldermen T. J. Mackey, E. W. M. Mackey, Barrow and Greene, also Hampton, Small, E. P. Wall, L. F. Wall, and Thorne, colored. Nine in all.

The Mayor, looking around, said that, as there was not a quorum present, he would suggest a motion to adjourn.

This was an unexpected coup, and the opposition looked as blank as a dead man. Alderman T. J. Mackey came to the rescue and suggested that the messenger be sent to summon the absent members, some of whom were in the Mayor's office. and moved that the messenger be dispatched on that errand. The Mayor said that under the 14th rule no meeting could take place after the hour appointed for the meeting was passed. E. P. Wall, colored, read the 5th rule imposing a fine on members who might absent themselves. He said he was satisfied that some of the missing Aldermen were in the Mayor's office. The Mayor said the rule applied when Council was in session.

E. P. Wall, colored, said it may be so construed, or otherwise construed. If they remain in the Mayor's room they are "obnoxious" to the penalty. Alderman T. J. Mackey asked if Council had no power to make the members attend. The Mayor said the chair had decided the question. Alderman T. J. Mackey (aside.) We understand that subterfuge fully. E. P. Wall, colored. Do you assume that you have the power to summon the members to attend? Don't you think you are competent to send the messenger to summon the members to attend? The Mayor. No question can be entertained without a quorum. I am unwell and you will do me the favor to move an adjournment.

E. P. Wall, colored. If no question can be entertained, how can a motion to adjourn be? The Mayor. If you will not grant my request, I will.

Here he was interrupted by Alderman E. W. M. Mackey, who asked how many made a quorum. The Mayor. Ten and the Mayor.

L. F. Wall, colored. Please make the Clerk see how many are here. The Mayor. If you won't adjourn I will va-

The Mayor then retired. As he walked out Alderman T. J. Mackey said: You ought to vacate permanently.

tion 5, act December 21, 1886, which provides that, "in case of the sickness or temporary absence of the Mayor of the said city the Aldermen shall appoint one of their number to act as Mayor pro tem., who shall, for the time being, exercise the power and duties vested in the Mayor," and moved that a member be appointed to adjourn the board decently and in

After a deal of side talking and bobbing of heads to and fro, during which E. P. Wall was informed of the honor in store for him, Alderman T. J. Mackey moved that "Alderman E. Wall be appointed to set in the Mayor's place ing, the 26th inst., at 8 o'clock.

The famous "nine" then walked quietly out of the chamber.

One of them, named Hicks, wounded a colored man, named Henry Holmes, with a brick, giving him a deep cut on the head and oue on the neck, from which the blood flowed profusely. The jurors for the Circuit Court were dismissed, to appear on Friday next at 10 A. M. The jurors for the United States District Cour will not be needed until the 14th of June. The Admiralty Appeal Docket having beer taken up, the court proceeded with the case of the United States vs. two hundred and fifty hogsheads of molasses, &c., cargo of the chooner Ald, condemned for violation of the evenue laws.

District Attorney Corbin and Mesars. R. S. Duryea and J. B. Campbell appeared for the government, and Messrs. James Conner and A. G. Magrath for the agent of the cargo, Mr. F. P. Salas, of the firm of Salas & Co. This case involves an amount of some $18,500, the proceeds of the cargo, when sold and paid into the registry of the court to await a decision.
